

NORTHLAND POWER INC.

MANDATE FOR THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

As provided in its articles, Northland Power Inc. (the “Corporation”) shall have a board of directors (the “Board”) consisting of a minimum of three and a maximum of twelve directors.

DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

The Board is responsible for the stewardship of the affairs of the Corporation and all of the corporations, trusts, partnerships and other entities, which may be owned or controlled by the Corporation (the “Entities”). The Board seeks to discharge such responsibility by supervising the actions of management of the Corporation and the Entities.

The Board discharges its responsibilities both directly and through its committees, the Audit Committee, the Governance and Nominating Committee and the Human Resources and Compensation Committee (each a “Committee” and collectively, the “Committees”). In addition to these standing Committees, the Board may appoint ad hoc committees periodically to address certain issues of a more short-term nature.

The Board’s primary role is to oversee the performance of management in order to meet the Corporation’s strategic objectives to enhance and preserve the business of the Corporation and, in this regard, shall include oversight of the Corporation’s succession planning process. Other principal duties include, but are not limited to, the following matters:

Board Organization

- The Board will respond to recommendations received from the Governance and Nominating Committee, but retains responsibility for managing its own affairs, the selection of the Chair of the Board, candidates nominated for election to the Board, Committee and Committee Chair appointments, and Committee charters and Board policies.
- The Board may delegate to Committees matters for which it is responsible, including but not limited to recommendations related to director compensation, setting corporate governance principles and guidelines, reviewing health and safety matters, performance evaluations of directors and oversight of internal controls systems; however the Board retains at all times its oversight and approval function and ultimate responsibility for these matters and all other delegated responsibilities.
- The Board will regularly review its size and ensure that it represents a mix of diverse skills, experiences, and abilities to ensure that the Board carries out its duties and responsibilities in the most effective manner.

Strategic Planning, Acquisitions and Investments

- The Board has responsibility to oversee a management-driven strategic planning process consistent with the investment objectives of the Corporation and the Board is responsible for approving on at least an annual basis, a strategic plan which takes into account the opportunities and risks of the business.
- The Board is responsible for reviewing, discussing and approving all material contracts, transactions, acquisitions and investments.
- The Board is responsible for providing input to management on emerging trends and issues and on management objectives and goals.

Monitoring of Financial Performance and Financial Statements

- The Board is responsible for monitoring the financial performance of the Corporation and for approving the level of distributions paid by the Corporation.
- The Board is responsible for approving the Corporation's audited financial statements, interim financial reports and the notes and Management's Discussion and Analysis accompanying such financial statements.

Risk Oversight

- The Board is responsible for overseeing (i) the identification of the principal risks of the Corporation's business; (ii) the implementation of appropriate systems to effectively monitor and manage such risks; and (iii) the long-term viability and sustainability of the Corporation with a view to achieving a proper balance between the risks incurred and the potential return to the Corporation.
- The Board is responsible for satisfying itself of the integrity of the CEO.

Policies and Procedures

- The Board is responsible for monitoring and approving material policies and procedures that are designed to ensure that the Corporation and all Entities operate within applicable laws and regulations and in accordance with ethical and moral standards.

Communications and Reporting

- The Board has approved and will revise from time to time as circumstances warrant a disclosure policy to address communications with shareholders, employees, financial analysts, investors, governments and regulatory authorities, the media and the Canadian and international communities.
- The Board is responsible for:

- overseeing the accurate reporting of the financial performance of the Corporation to shareholders, other securityholders and regulators on a timely and regular basis;
- overseeing that the financial results of the Corporation are reported fairly and in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards and related legal disclosure requirements;
- taking steps to enhance the timely disclosure of any other developments that have a significant and material impact on the Corporation; and
- approving all prospectuses, financial statements, the Corporation's annual information form and management information circular.

CHAIR OF THE BOARD

Introduction

The Board selects its chair (the “Chair”) from among its members to lead the Board in the course of its work. The Chair is responsible for the overall process involved in the work of the Board, as well as the development and effective performance of the Board.

The Chair provides advice and counsel to senior management of the Corporation on issues of importance to senior management or the Board.

Key Responsibilities of the Chair

- reviews the preparation of the agendas for all Board and, if required, shareholder meetings;
- presides at all Board and shareholder meetings;
- ensures that the Board receives regular updates on all issues important to the Corporation;
- ensures that Board members understand major issues, strategy and risks;
- works closely with the Chairs of the Committees to ensure that all of the Committees' responsibilities are carried out; and
- works collectively and individually with members of the Board to ensure optimum performance of the Board.

LEAD DIRECTOR

Appointment

The lead director (the “Lead Director”) is appointed by the Board annually. The Lead Director must always be an independent director within the meaning of National Instrument 58-101, as amended from time to time.

Responsibilities

The Lead Director shall:

- ensure that the Board functions independently of management;
- ensure that independent directors have adequate opportunities to meet to discuss issues without representatives of management present;
- chair separate meetings of the independent directors;
- be available to Board members who have concerns that cannot be addressed through the Chair or meetings of the Board;
- chair meetings of the Board in the absence of the Chair;
- as requested by the Board act as a liaison between the Board and management;
- in consultation with the Chair and management set the agenda for Board meetings; and
- ensure the Board has the requisite resources to support its work effectively.

BOARD COMMITTEES

Committee Composition

Each Committee shall consist of at least three directors. All members of each Committee shall be fully comprised of directors who are independent directors within the meaning of National Instrument 58-110. Each member of the Committee shall continue to be a member until a successor is appointed by the Board, unless the member resigns, ceases to be qualified to serve or ceases to be a director. The Chair of each Committee shall be appointed by the Board.

Committee Meetings and Procedures

Meetings of each Committee may be held at the call of the respective Committee Chair or upon request by two members on two days’ prior notice to all members or, by agreement of all members of the Committee, without notice, and may be held at the offices of the Corporation or at such other location as the Chair may determine. Committee meetings may also be held by conference call, electronic, virtual or other communication facilities where all members of the Committee can hear each other.

A quorum for all meetings of each Committee shall be a majority of the members. The decision of a majority of those present at a meeting, at which quorum is present, shall be the decision of the Committee. The Committee may also act by unanimous written resolution.

The Chair shall be responsible for agendas for the Committee and agendas and briefing materials shall be prepared and circulated in advance of the meeting. Minutes of meetings of the Committee shall be kept and sent to all members and shall be maintained with the books and records of the Corporation. The Secretary of the Board will act as Secretary of the Committee. The Board shall be kept informed of the activities of the Committee by periodic reports from the Chair.

The Committee may determine such additional rules of procedure it considers necessary to regulate its proceedings and business.

This mandate shall be reviewed on an annual basis.

Confirmed by the Board of Directors on December 8, 2021.
